GLOBAL OPERATIONAL NETWORK OF ANTI-CORRUPTION LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITIES
The Global Operational Network of Law Enforcement Authorities (the GlobE Network) was established in 2021 and is open to anti-corruption law enforcement authorities of all United Nations Member States and States parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC). The Network is governed by its members and is supported by the United Nations Office against Drugs and Crime (UNODC) which provides the Network’s secretariat.

GlobE, a rapidly expanding global community dedicated to countering corruption, plays a pivotal role in fostering cooperation on corruption cases. GlobE members connect and collaborate directly within the GlobE secure communication platform, a vital tool ensuring the secure exchange of information and good practices to detect, investigate and prosecute transnational corruption. Practical support to investigators and prosecutors includes specialized resources, tools, and facilitation of bi- and multilateral meetings. With partners, the Network strives for effective and efficient of transnational cooperation for practitioners worldwide.

MEMBERS, AUXILIARY MEMBERS AND OBSERVERS

Anti-corruption law enforcement authorities from UN Member States and parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC) are eligible to join the Network as members or auxiliary members. Global and regional networks, organizations, and other bodies engaged with law enforcement operational activities contributing to the investigation and prosecution of corruption offences, and related asset recovery, and those that perform a complementary strategic function in targeting corruption, can join the Network as observers.

Simply download the applicable application form from globenetwork.unodc.org and fill it out. For member and auxiliary member applications kindly ensure the GlobE secretariat receives your application request from your country’s Permanent Mission to the UN. Observer applications can be emailed directly to the secretariat at globenetwork@unodc.org.

WHAT THE GLOBE NETWORK IS

The Global Operational Network of Law Enforcement Authorities (the GlobE Network) was established in 2021 and is open to anti-corruption law enforcement authorities of all United Nations Member States and States parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC). The Network is governed by its members and is supported by the United Nations Office against Drugs and Crime (UNODC) which provides the Network’s secretariat.

GlobE, a rapidly expanding global community dedicated to countering corruption, plays a pivotal role in fostering cooperation on corruption cases. GlobE members connect and collaborate directly within the GlobE secure communication platform, a vital tool ensuring the secure exchange of information and good practices to detect, investigate and prosecute transnational corruption. Practical support to investigators and prosecutors includes specialized resources, tools, and facilitation of bi- and multilateral meetings. With partners, the Network strives for effective and efficient of transnational cooperation for practitioners worldwide.

WHY JOIN THE GLOBE NETWORK

The Network experiences rapid growth as its members progressively enhance their transnational cooperation. GlobE offers:

- Access to a global network of authorities and peers: Identify and connect with the designated contact points of any anti-corruption GlobE member, and foster relationships based on mutual trust.
- Furthering cases directly: Use the GlobE secure communications platform to contact a counterpart, share information and determine the best way forward.
- Support on furthering cases: Access specialized resources, training, tools, and services dedicated to transnational cooperation.
- Opportunities to contribute to and learn from good practices and build capacity.

HOW TO JOIN THE GLOBE NETWORK

MEMBERS, AUXILIARY MEMBERS AND OBSERVERS

Anti-corruption law enforcement authorities from UN Member States and parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC) are eligible to join the Network as members or auxiliary members. Global and regional networks, organizations, and other bodies engaged with law enforcement operational activities contributing to the investigation and prosecution of corruption offences, and related asset recovery, and those that perform a complementary strategic function in targeting corruption, can join the Network as observers.

Simply download the applicable application form from globenetwork.unodc.org and fill it out. For member and auxiliary member applications kindly ensure the GlobE secretariat receives your application request from your country’s Permanent Mission to the UN. Observer applications can be emailed directly to the secretariat at globenetwork@unodc.org.

THE GLOBE NETWORK VISION

Timely and efficient transnational cooperation against corruption.

HOW THE GLOBE NETWORK COOPERATES

GlobE extends a warm welcome to pertinent observers and pursues becoming an observer within other relevant networks and organizations. It proactively engages with partners to deliver practical and effective support for transnational corruption cases to practitioners.

Success, for GlobE and its partners, is measured by the collective contribution to practitioners in detecting, investigating and prosecuting corruption through seamless transnational cooperation.
Contact the GlobE Secretariat at
UNODC Headquarters in Vienna, Austria

Email us: globenetwork@un.org
Visit the GlobE website: globenetwork.unodc.org
Follow us on X: @UNODC_corruption and @UNODC_ac
Use our hashtags: #GlobENetwork and #BuildyourNetwork